

Spanish

What is the exam board and route?

A Level Spanish AQA (7692)

Subject Entry Requirements: Grade 7 in GCSE MFL advised.

Subject outline

In Spanish A Level, we build on the grammar and vocabulary learnt at GCSE and gain a greater understanding of Spain and the wider Hispanic world, including the study of a film (Maria Full of Grace/María, Llena Eres De Gracia) and a novel (Chronicle of a Death Foretold). There is also individual research on a topic related to the Hispanic world, worth 70% of the speaking exam.

How is the course assessed?

3 exams. 2 written papers: listening and reading and writing – 2hr 30 (50%); writing (film/novel) – 2hrs (20%); and a spoken exam: ~25 minutes (30%).

Why study this subject?

The ability to communicate in a foreign language is a very valuable asset in an increasingly globalised world. Studying Spanish at A Level will give you the opportunity to communicate directly with the 550 million native speakers across the globe and enhance your career prospects. If you choose to study A Level Spanish at LGS, you will be taught by three experienced and dedicated teachers who will seek to help you develop your language skills, as well as deepening your understanding of Spain and the Hispanic world. A significant bonus is that you will have the opportunity to practise and improve your language skills in a dedicated one to one session with a native Spanish speaker.

Complementary subjects

Spanish works well with every single subject combination.

Possible careers

Many big graduate employers are multinational organisations and are keen to recruit candidates who are willing to work overseas and can liaise effectively with international colleagues. Studying Spanish is likely to develop interpersonal and communication skills that graduate recruiters value, as well as other key strengths.

Subject enrichment available
